La la la...

Baby, pull me in your arms and hold me
Feel my emotions feel them from the inside
I'm just a crooked doll who's stuffing
Needs to be torn out, feeling from the inside

My dear, pull me in your arms and hold me
Loving is backwards
Turning everything inside out
All i've wished for, oh baby
Reverse everything
Reverse everything
Reverse me, ah!

Pulling everything out
(Out of ordinary)
Throwing everything around
('Round the corners of the earth)
Screaming at eachother
(Other people don't know)
Like the maniacs we are
(Are you ready?)

We make our debut
Walk down the aisle

Reverse everything around me
Reverse everything inside me

Well, i'm in love!
